

Role description: Disciplinary panel member (voluntary)

Role Overview:

As a Volunteer Disciplinary Panel Member, you will play a crucial role in maintaining the integrity and discipline within Wales Rugby League. You will be responsible for reviewing and adjudicating on disciplinary matters, ensuring that all decisions are fair, consistent, and in line with the league's regulations and values.

Key Responsibilities:

- Attend disciplinary hearings and review cases involving breaches of the league's rules and regulations.
- Evaluate evidence presented by both parties and make informed decisions based on the facts.
- Ensure that all disciplinary procedures are conducted fairly and impartially.
- Provide clear and concise written decisions and recommendations.
- Maintain confidentiality and integrity throughout the disciplinary process.
- Collaborate with other panel members and league officials to ensure consistency in decision-making.

Qualifications:

- A strong understanding of rugby league rules and regulations.
- Excellent analytical and decision-making skills.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to remain impartial and objective.
- Previous experience in a disciplinary or regulatory role is desirable but not essential.

Commitment:

- Attend scheduled disciplinary hearings, which may take place during evenings or weekends.
 - Participate in training sessions and workshops as required.

Benefits:

- Contribute to the integrity and fairness of Wales Rugby League.
- Gain valuable experience in a regulatory and decision-making role.
- Opportunity to work with a dedicated team of volunteers and league officials.
- Ticket to home international matches.

How to Apply: Interested candidates should submit their application, including a cover letter and resume, to Adam.Rowland@walesrugbyleague.co.uk by Wednesday 26th February.
